

CONCEALED HANDGUN LICENSE

Deschutes County Sheriff's Office General Information Guide

You must be at least 21 years of age.

Your principle residence (own or rent) must be in Deschutes County to be eligible for a concealed handgun license. Provide proof of residency by showing a valid Oregon Drivers License at the time of application or documentation that you own or lease property in Deschutes County.

Pass a background check. The purpose of the background check is to verify that all required paperwork has been completed. In addition, if the applicant meets all criteria specified, the sheriff may deny a concealed handgun license if the sheriff has reasonable grounds to believe that the applicant has been or is reasonably likely to be a danger to self or others, or to the community at large, as a result of the applicant's mental or psychological state, as demonstrated by past pattern of behavior or participation in incidents involving unlawful violence or threats of unlawful violence (ORS166.293 (2)). A criminal record check, including the National Crime Information Center (NCIC), a driving record check with the Oregon Department of Motor Vehicles, a check with the Oregon Department of Corrections, and a mental health check will be completed.

Pay non-refundable processing fee to cover the costs associated with the fingerprinting and background checks. This fee is due upon submission of the completed application.

Failure to follow the required procedures will result in an incomplete application which can not be accepted.

In addition, at the time of application, you must be able to demonstrate firearms competence by any one of the methods provided by law below:

1. Completion of any N.R.A. firearms safety or training course, if handgun safety was a component of the course.
2. Completion of any firearms safety or training course or class available to the general public offered by law enforcement, community college, private or public instruction, or organization or firearm training school utilizing instructors certified by the N.R.A. or law enforcement agency, if handgun safety was a component of the course.
3. Completion of any law enforcement firearms safety or training course or class offered for security personnel, investigators, reserve law enforcement officers or any other law enforcement officer if handgun safety was a component of the course.
4. Present evidence of equivalent experience with a handgun through participation in organized shooting competition or military service.
5. Proof you are licensed or have been licensed to carry a firearm in this state, unless the license has been revoked.
6. Completion of any firearms training or safety course or class conducted by a firearms instructor certified by a law enforcement agency or the NRA if handgun safety is a component of the course.

ATTENTION: Oregon law prohibits the issuance of a concealed handgun license to anyone with a felony conviction, a misdemeanor conviction within the last four years, anyone on pretrial release, or anyone subject to a Family Abuse Prevention Act Restraining Order or Stalking Order. Oregon and Federal laws also prohibit a person from owning or possessing a gun if they have had a felony conviction that was reduced to a misdemeanor after completion of probation, any convictions of misdemeanor crimes of domestic violence, or is subject to a court protective order that was issued after a hearing in which the person had an opportunity to participate and restrains the person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner or the child of such intimate partner.

Oregon law allows for the denial of a concealed handgun license if you have a history which shows an inclination toward confrontation with others, including neighbors, family members, etc. You may also be denied a concealed handgun license if you have a history of conflict with law enforcement officers, offenses with firearms, documented problems involving alcohol and/or drug abuse. If any of these conditions apply to you and you none the less feel you are eligible for a license, return to this office appropriate documentation, dates and explanation of circumstances including copies of any applicable pardons, certificates of discharge, or court orders surrounding your circumstances for further consideration.
